GAEU Consulting hereby recommends Agata Adamczyk & Associates Attorneys at Law as a reliable and highly competent advisor in the field of business law.

Agata Adamczyk & Associates have advised GAEU Consulting Group in the process of performing corporate changes in the Polish subsidiary GAEU Consulting Sp. z o.o. aimed at introducing a new shareholder to the company and formalizing relations between the shareholders by means of a dedicated Shareholders' Agreement. The corporate changes further included amendments in the Articles of Associations of the company aligning them with the intended Shareholders' Agreement, thus meeting requirements communicated by the future Shareholders.

In the course of the project, Agata Adamczyk & Associates have taken the initiative in indicating possible solutions regarding introduction of a new shareholder to the company and structuring the legal relationship between the Shareholders, as well as highlighting advantages and disadvantages with available legal options. Required documents have been prepared meticulously and in time. All the intended corporate changes have been performed with due effectiveness and registered at the proper court of law.

The communication with Agata Adamczyk & Associates has proven to be highly efficient and transparent. Agata Adamczyk & Associates have a fluent command of English, which makes the work-flow transparent and straightforward. The legal advice provided by the lawyers incorporates commercial and business aspects of the legal changes in the company structure, illustrating how the changes influence the company in a broader context. We can honestly recommend Agata Adamczyk & Associates as a highly professional and experienced law firm.
